ISGVF Reflections THE MASJID

Allah (S.W.T) says: And the places of worship (or the mosques) are only for Allah, so pray not unto anyone along with Allah.

The Mosque is by far the single most important community institution in the Muslim life. From the time of prophet Mohammed (S.A.A.W.S) and throughout the centuries thereafter, the mosque has played a pivotal role in bringing up Muslims and Believers who understood the message of Islam and served to propagate it throughout the world.

There are guidance's and manners that we need to observe when visiting the Mosque; we will review 12 of these inshaAllah:

1- Cleaning and purifying ourselves and wearing our best clothes and putting cologne on (for men).
Allah (S.W.T) says: O Children of Adam! Look to your adornment (or decoration or embellishment) at every place of worship

2- Cleaning the Mosque, it is not fitting for clean people to go to a dirty Mosque. It is also not fitting for our houses to be clean and for the Mosque to be dirty. We need to treat the Mosque in just the same way we treat our houses, in fact, we need to treat the Mosque better because the Mosques are the houses of Allah (S.W.T). Cleaning the Mosque is not the responsibility of the Mosque officials, it is everyone's responsibility.

3- Because the Mosque is the house of Allah (S.W.T), we have to display our best behavior before we even get to it, we cannot be rushing people or cutting other drivers off or not observing traffic signs or parking in non-designated spots or using the handicapped spot without authorization or running to the Mosque or blocking the doors. We have to remember that we are going to the house of Allah (S.W.T) and therefore we need to behave accordingly.

4- Avoiding eating foods that emit odors,
The prophet (S.A.A.W.S) says: He who eats garlic and onion and leek, should not approach our mosque for the angels are harmed by the same things as the children of Adam.
It is always a good idea to brush our teeth before coming to the mosque and also to use the tooth stick (Al Miswak) as the prophet (S.A.A.W.S) used to do.

DONATE TO ISGVF

5- Entering the Mosque with the right foot and saying the supplication that the prophet (S.A.A.W.S) taught us:

O Allah, praise prophet Mohammed
O Allah, open for me the gates of your mercy
Also, exiting the mosque with our left foot and saying:
O Allah, I ask you to give me from your grace

6- Praying two rakas when entering the Mosque.

7- Making it to the first row without stepping over or bothering anyone.

8- Organizing and straightening the rows and closing the gaps.

The prophet (S.A.A.W.S) says:

Straighten your rows, or Allah would create dissension amongst you

The best way to accomplish this is for the sides of the row to align with the middle using the person who is behind the Imam as a reference. This is something that we need to pay more attention to.

9- Refraining from engaging in worldly matters such as selling merchandise inside the Mosque or calling out lost items or talking about or conducting business.

10- Controlling children and keeping them in check. The Mosque is not the place for horseplay and wrestling matches, there are designated places for sports and recreational activities. Children need to be with their parents and be taught to sit down and be silent and listen attentively and learn as much as they can.

11- Listening attentively to the khatib or speaker and not engaging in any distractions.

12- Getting the most out of our visit by learning what is being taught and applying it immediately thereafter. Our religion is a practical one, it is not one that we practice in the Mosque and completely forget about as soon as we leave.

We ask Allah (S.W.T) to make us of those who follow his book and the guidance of his messenger Mohammed (S.A.A.W.S), we ask Allah (S.W.T) to make us of those who observe good manners when going to the Mosque and at all times.
